I REALLY hope that you have tons of reading experiences over the summer. Keep a log of your summer reading so you can AR test all your books in September! ☺ Please bring in a book that you are reading on the first day of school. For those that want to get a head start, I've attached the high frequency word list for Grade 3.

Don't forget to have fun with Math this summer as well. It's exciting to explore the interesting shapes you can find on your summer adventures (squares, triangles). Use online math games such as abcya.com desktop version. Also roll two dice and add or multiply the numbers to brush up on those number facts.

I can't wait to with you in September and soar to new heights. Please have a safe and enjoyable summer with your family and friends.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Mary Moulder

Summer Reading Suggestions

Parents often ask for book recommendations for children to read over the summer. While it is not mandatory to read any of the books listed, you may enjoy choosing one or two to explore over the summer. No matter what your child decides, encourage them to select books they can't wait to read. They should enjoy travelling to new places so they can recommend it to a friend afterwards.

The BFG

by Roald Dahl, Quentin Blake (illus.)

Kidsnatched from her orphanage by a BFG (Big Friendly Giant) who spends his life blowing happy dreams to children, Sophie concocts with him a plan to save the world from nine other man-gobbling cannybull giants. Also recommended: Fantastic Mr. Fox

How to Eat Fried Worms

by Thomas Rockwell, Emily A. McCully (illus.)

Billy makes a bet with his friends that he can eat 15 worms in 15 days. Even with a free choice of condiments -- from peanut butter to horseradish -- Billy wonders if he can really do it.

Mr. Popper's Penguins

by Richard Atwater, Florence Atwater, Robert Lawson (illus.)

It is hard enough for Mr. Popper to support himself, Mrs. Popper, Bill, and Janie Popper. The addition of 12 penguins to the family makes it impossible to make both ends meet. Then Mr. Popper has a splendid idea -- the talented penguins will be a sensation on the stage. And so they are.... A classic of American humor, this Newbery Honor-winning story of a gentle housepainter and his high-stepping penguins has delighted children for generations.
